ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Akamai Apprenticeships are a part of our talent-building programs that introduces individuals to new career paths. It's a high-quality training, certification, and employment program where an individual can obtain work experience, classroom instruction, and one-on-one mentorship. Rigorous training will be provided by Akamai teams to become proficient in technical support, sales, and other areas. At the completion of the program, participants are evaluated for open positions across Akamai.
